Shortage of Police personnel in Delhi police

942. DR. M.A.M. RAMASWAMY: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

- whether there is a rise in various types of crime in Delhi;
- if so, the details of crimes reported in Delhi during the last three years, year-wise;
- whether it is a fact that there is an acute shortage of police personnel in Delhi Police;
- if so, the details thereof; and
- the steps taken to fill up the vacancies in Delhi Police and reducing the crime rate in the capital?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. REGUPATHY): (a) and (b) There has been increase of over all crime cases registered in the year 2006 in comparison to over all crime cases registered in the year 2004 and 2005. The details of total crimes reported in Delhi during the year 2004, 2005 and 2006 are given in the enclosed statement. (See below)

(c) to (e) Out of the sanctioned strength of 59610 in various ranks in Delhi Police, number of vacant posts are 4261. In addition, Delhi Police has been sanctioned five India Reserve Battalions with 5035 posts of various ranks. Out of this the number of vacant posts are 2122. Filling up of vacant posts is a continuing process. The steps taken by Delhi Police to fill up the existing vacancies include holding/convening of meetings of Departmental Promotion Committee, in cases where the posts are required to be filled up by promotion; inviting applications from suitable candidates in cases where the posts are required to be filled up on deputation basis; holding of Physical Measurement Tests and conducting written examination, interview etc. and intimating vacancies to the Staff Selection Commission for taking necessary action to select suitable candidates in cases where subordinate posts are to be filled up by direct recruitment.

The steps taken by Delhi Police to reduce crime rate in the capital include improvement in the beat system of patrolling; identification of Police Stations with high rate of crime and provision of additional manpower and motorcycle patrols to such Police Stations; rationalizing the timing for patrolling to maximize its effectiveness; development of intelligence about movement of desperate criminals; multi-tasking of Police Control Room Vans; establishment of Crime against Women Cell; setting up of Rape Crisis Intervention Centres in all the nine Police Districts; deployment of staff in plain cloth at vulnerable places; starting of dedicated 'Women Helpline' in the Police Control Room; constitution of 'Women Mobile Team' to attend to distress calls from women on round-the-clock basis; setting up of 'Senior Citizens Security Cell' at the Police Headquarters; closer interaction with Residents Welfare Associations; and establishment of Mobile Crime Team equipped with sophisticated equipments and its round-the-clock deployment in each District.
